As a blood purifier and tonic it brings health renewed energy and vitality to a worn and diseased body.

By referring to the circuit court proceedings it will be seen that James Fuller was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary for resisting and shooting Deputy Sheriff A. D. MEXICAN VETERANS.

The lower house of congress at its last session passed a bill pensioning all the Mexican soldiers that were engaged in the war with Mexico in 1846-7. The bill was amended by the senate, giving only those of the veterans a pension who had arrived at the age of 62 years or more. The bill as amended was acted upon by the house Monday evening and was carried by 215 yeas to five nays, and it now only requires the president's signature to become a law. There are six Mexican veterans who reside in Keytesville, viz: "Uncle Hack" Hawkins, R. M. Scott, A. W. Runkle, J. R. Myers, John Gaston and D. J. Nichols, "Uncle Hack" being the only one of the number old enough to receive any benefit at present from the bill as passed on Monday.

Wm. Ewing, col., who lives two miles north of Dalton, had his tobacco barn, containing his last year's crop of tobacco and other contents, destroyed by fire between 5 and 6 o'clock Sunday evening. The origin of the fire is not known. William was in the barn during the day smoking, but thinks that no fire escaped from his pipe. Neither the barn nor contents were insured, and the loss falls heavily on the owner.

A tramp furnished our citizens on Monday some diversion from the dull routine of a winter's day by taking a pair of rubbers hanging on an iron bar in front of A. Emanuel & Son's store. [Bob Ewing saw his trampship take the rubbers and Marshal Finnell was called to investigate the matter. The tourist could not tell where he got the rubbers for he seemed to be in a drunken stupor and after the rubbers were taken from him he kept saying, "I want my overshoes, I want my overshoes." After they were recovered Mr. Emanuel suggested that Marshal Finnell turn him loose, which was done. The tramp looked disappointed—his game was probably to commit a petit theft and get locked up either in the calaboose or county jail until the present cold blizzard blew over. He seated himself on a large stone just east of M. W. Anderson & Co.'s store, from which he was evidently endeavoring to extract the frost. Poor fellow!

NOTICE.

To all whom it may concern:

Notice is hereby given that application will be made at the February term of the Chariton county court, 1887, to be begun and held at the courthouse in the town of Keytesville, Mo., on the first Monday in February, 1887, to straighten the channel of the Chariton river, in Chariton county, Mo., by cutting off the large loops and bends in said stream, leaving the low banks and otherwise improving said stream, so as to prevent the overflows therefrom. With the view of reclaiming and protecting the valley of said stream, that a petition for that purpose signed by a large majority of the resident owners of said lands has been filed with the clerk of the Chariton county court as the law requires. All those opposed to this enterprise be you then and there to make your objections known or forever afterwards hold your peace.

Signed,
